

Summer Camp Scholarship Program

What: Reduced tuition for Madison area children to attend MCM summer camp programs.

Who: Camp scholarships are available to MCM Family Access member children entering grades 2–6 in fall 2014. See the Summer Camp flier for camp information and dates. Scholarship funds may be used for any of the museum's camp programs, subject to enrollment availability. All programs are filled on a first-come, first-served basis. To learn more or become a Family Access member, visit MadisonChildrensMuseum.org.

Eligibility: Your family qualifies for Family Access membership if any adults or children in your household utilize WIC, Head Start, free or reduced school lunch, Birth to 3, SSDI, Fostercare, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Unemployment Insurance or any other public assistance program.

Application: Complete and attach this form to a completed Summer Camp registration form. Please provide a photocopy of one of the following income-verification documents: Section 8, WIC, MA, Quest, or SSI card.
